

On-line Supplementary Material to:

Warner, R.B. 2014 The gold fragments from Haughey's Fort, Co. Armagh:
description and XRF-analysis. Emania 22, 69–76

available at <http://www.navan-research-group.org>

Copyright of any Supplementary Materials to accompany Emania articles remains with the original copyright holder, not the Navan Research Group or Curach Bhán Publications.

Fig. 1 Decorated sheet gold fragment number 14. Positive relief on the left. The composite photographic illustrations accompanying this report were made by the author using digital micro-photographs taken by David Brown, of the School of Geography, Archaeology and Palaeoecology, Queen's University, Belfast.

Fig. 2 Foil sheet number 1.

Fig. 3 'Stud'-cover number 18.

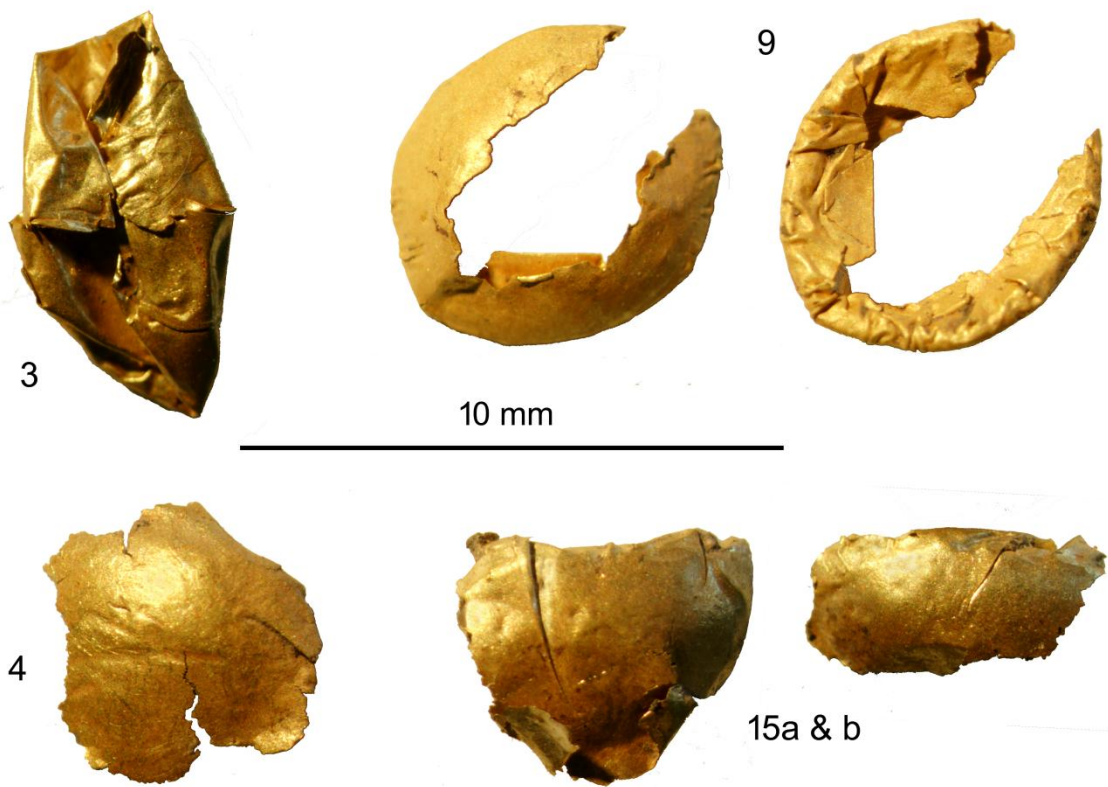

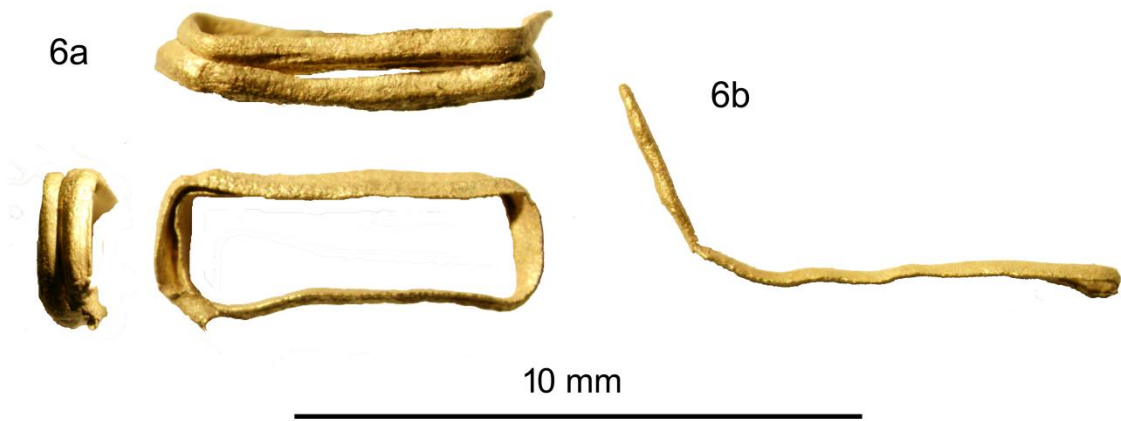

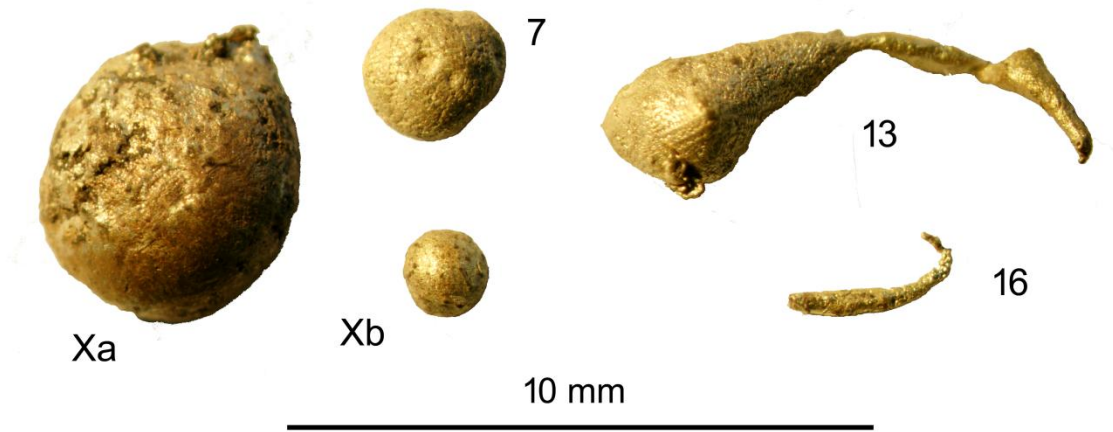

Fig. 4 Other probable (9, 15a, 15b) and possible (3, 4)'stud' covers.

Fig. 5 Strips 6a and 6b.

Fig. 6 Pellets (7, Xa and Xb) and runs (13 and 16).